

Acknowledgements

Community Consultation in the Planning and Development Process is a project of the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues (EFCL). The Federation thanks its committed and insightful volunteer Steering Committee members for their expertise, guidance and time. Their contributions have made this document a resource for developers and community members alike.

Steering Committee members:

Rupinder Basi, EFCL

Michelle Cabalt, City of Edmonton (Planning and Development Department)

Bard Golightly, Edmonton Region Home Builders' Association

Ben Henderson, EFCL

Shafraaz Kaba, Manasc Isaac Architects

Brian McCosh, EFCL

Amanda McFall, City of Edmonton (Transportation and Streets Department)

Lynn Parish, EFCL

Al Parsons, Gray Scott Consulting Group Inc.

Brenda Peters, Urban Development Institute

Jim Westergard, Edmonton Real Estate Board

EFCL thanks the Alberta Real Estate Foundation and Community Initiatives Program for funding this project.

Community Consultation in the Planning and Development Process was researched, written and designed by Anna Bubel (abubel@connect.ab.ca), Miranda Ringma (info@miranda.ca) and Heidi Veluw (hveluw@telus.net). Cheryl Mahaffy (mahaffyc@shaw.ca) edited the document and Donna Wedgewood-Maynes proofread the final version (dwmaynes@telusplanet.net). Illustrations by Jessica Hiemstra (jessgreg@telus.net).

© 2003. Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues. All rights reserved.

Additional copies can be obtained from:

Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues

7103-105 Street

Edmonton, Alberta T6E 4G8

Tel: (780) 437-2913; Fax: (780) 434-4710

E-mail: efcl@telusplanet.net

Web: www.efcl.org

ISBN 0-9734856-0-4.

We heartily welcome any corrections, additions or other input about this guide. Please submit these to the address above for consideration in future editions.